

How Did You Do?

The twins want you to check your work and find out how you did in your new job as a Private Investigator for the Matter Matters Investigating Agency.

Excellent Investigator (4)

Background Research completed all parts information is correct neat work	Report completed all parts of the task very organized and creative neat work all spelling and punctuation correct
------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

The twins are very pleased with your work. You are made a partner in the detective agency and receive a $10,000 bonus.

Good Investigator (3)

Background Research completed all parts information is mostly correct neat work	Report completed all parts of the task organized neat work most spelling and punctuation is correct
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

The twins are pleased with your work. You keep your job with the detective agency and receive a $100 a week raise.

Investigator-in-Training (2)

Background research completed most parts information is mostly correct fairly neat work	Report completed most of the task fair organization fairly neat work most spelling and punctuation is correct
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

The twins want you to return to Investigator School for some more training on how to research information and present a report.

Looking For A New Job (1)

Background research incomplete some information is correct messy work	Report task not completed not organized messy work spelling and punctuation were not checked
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

The twins think you need more skills to work for their detective agency and suggest you go back to school or find a different job.